Experience

Senior Content Designer, The Mind Company

Remote

April 2024 – May 2026

Partnered with design, product, data, CS, and engineering to help shape brain-training app Elevate's user experience.

Refined features and copy using insights gained from analytics, user feedback, and test results. Spearheaded design of three new daily puzzles, managed content for 40+ games, and performed testing and design reviews for iOS and Android apps. Also, prolific slackmoji creator.

Senior UX Writer (Contract), Prudential

Remote

September 2023 – March 2024

Collaborated with designers, product owners, developers, researchers, accessibility experts, marketing, and business stakeholders on Prudential individual life insurance products to ensure their new digital customer experience was empathetic, understandable, simple, and swift. Reviewed, edited, and improved content including FAQs & style guides.

UX & Product Writing Lead, Lemonade

New York, NY

May 2021 – June 2023

Reviewed, enhanced, and approved nearly all copy in product flows, both internal and external. Collaborated with product managers, designers, engineers, legal, translators, SEO, and CX to develop and implement cohesive, consistent, and clear features and language. Worked closely with leadership to evolve and refine the voices of our AI-powered chatbots.

Senior UX Writer, Etsy

Brooklyn, NY

March 2016 – April 2021

Responsible for product copy across both the buyer and seller experience, from sign-in through check-out, on apps and the web. Worked with product & brand designers, product managers, researchers, analysts, and engineers to implement and enhance Etsy's voice. Co-hosted the Etsy Success Podcast.

Product Copywriter, Yammer/Microsoft

San Francisco, CA

June 2013 – February 2016

Worked closely with product managers, designers, researchers, and engineers to understand new product features and maintain a strong, clear, and user-friendly voice. Managed a series of other endeavors — among them blogs & microsites — providing editorial polish, imagery, and inspiration for content.
